

Paul Brent,
FWS, SWS, NWS

LICENSING YOUR ART

Paul licenses his artwork to many different manufacturers for a variety of products. His artwork can be found on wall décor, garden flags, shower curtains, canvas tote bags, stationery items, rugs and mats, pillows, coasters, placemats, needlework, fabric, paper party products, wallpaper, dinnerware, and more. Want to know more about this stream of income? Be sure to attend this demo!

Paul Brent is a Florida artist whose work is known worldwide. He is best known for his idyllic watercolors of coastal life and is often referred to as America's best-known coastal artist. His work in watercolor and oil has shown constant progression and change throughout his career. Paul Brent is a signature member of the FWS, Southern Watercolor Society, and NWS. His work has been included in museums and art galleries throughout the US. He was asked to create a Christmas ornament for the White House Christmas tree for Christmas 2008. He designed the artwork for the 90-foot water tower in Panama City, Florida, and has painted murals for the Bay County Library, the technology building for Gulf Coast State College in

Historic Key West Lighthouse by Paul Brent

Panama City, and a 16' x 19' mural in downtown Panama City. Following the destruction of his gallery in 2018 by Hurricane Michael, his work can now be seen at his new studio in downtown Panama City during special exhibit hours and by appointment. <https://paulbrent.com/>

F L O R I D A W A T E R C O L O R S O C I E T Y