ARCHITECTURAL MOSAICS

This demo will focus on the production of a nonobjective painting by creating rhythmic geometric shapes in vivid colors. Color is added intuitively containing several color combinations creating depth and dimension that invites the viewer to move into a space of imagination and intrigue. <https://www.facebook.com/lisafranklinfineart>

Lisa Arnold Franklin has been interested in art since childhood. She studied architecture at Southern Polytechnic University and worked in the fields of architecture and interior design for several decades. In 2014 she decided to devote her time exclusively to art and watercolor and in 2017, began entering shows and competitions. She has won numerous awards and is a signature member of many societies, including Tallahassee Watercolor Society and the Georgia Watercolor Society.
